From the desk of Fr. Thumma Prathap:

This weekend's readings are about the transforming power of the word of God when read, preached, and lived. They also warn us not to be disappointed at the absence of immediate results. The parable of the sower in today's Gospel challenges us to listen intently to God's Word, to be open to it, and to allow our lives to be shaped by its power. The parable reminds us that man's reception of God's Word is determined by the condition of his heart. In the first reading, Isaiah consoles the Jewish slaves in Babylon, assuring them that, like rain and snow which water the earth so that seeds may sprout and grow, God's word will accomplish its purpose, in this case by returning the exiles to their homes in peace as God promised. Today's Gospel teaches us that the word of the Lord is the seed, and our hearts and minds are the soil. The seed's good spiritual yield in one's life depends on how fully one willingly accepts and responds to the word of the Lord. The parable tells us to do our part by preparing fertile soil in our hearts in which the word of God can germinate, grow, and yield 30-, 60, or 100-fold. We need to read the word of God every day, starting with a prayer to the Holy Spirit for the gifts of attentive reading and the ability and willingness to apply the message we receive to our daily living. We need to keep our hearts open to the word of God instead of closing it with pride, prejudice, fear, or laziness. Amen.

Desde el escritorio del P. Thumma Prathap:

Las lecturas de este fin de semana son acerca del poder transformador de la Palabra de Dios cuando se lee, predica y vive. También nos advierten que no nos decepcionemos por la ausencia de resultados inmediatos. La parábola del sembrador en el Evangelio de hoy nos desafía a escuchar atentamente la Palabra de Dios, a estar abiertos a ella y a permitir que nuestras vidas sean moldeadas por su poder. La parábola nos recuerda que la recepción del hombre a la Palabra de Dios está determinada por la condición de su corazón. En la primera lectura, Isaías consuela a los esclavos judíos en Babilonia, asegurándoles que, como la lluvia y la nieve que riegan la tierra para que las semillas puedan brotar y crecer, la palabra de Dios cumplirá su propósito, en este caso al devolver a los exiliados a sus hogares en la paz como Dios prometió. El Evangelio de hoy nos enseña que la palabra del Señor es la semilla, y nuestros corazones y mentes son la tierra. El buen rendimiento espiritual de la semilla en la vida de uno depende de cuán plenamente uno acepte voluntariamente y responda a la palabra del Señor. La parábola nos dice que debemos hacer nuestra parte preparando tierra fértil en nuestros corazones en la que la palabra de Dios pueda germinar, crecer y producir 30, 60 o 100 veces. Necesitamos leer la palabra de Dios todos los días, comenzando con una oración al Espíritu Santo por los dones de lectura atenta y la capacidad y la voluntad de aplicar el mensaje que recibimos en nuestra vida diaria. Necesitamos mantener nuestros corazones abiertos a la palabra de Dios en lugar de cerrarla con soberbia, prejuicio, miedo o pereza. Amén.

O Mary,
you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm.
You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need,
and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee,
we may

return to joy

and to feasting
after this time of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection.
Amen.
