From the desk of Fr. Ian Robbins:

The Wheat and the Weeds: Often times, when we find ourselves struggling with a bad habit in our lives, the immediate thought is, "I need to go through and thoroughly remove that habit from my life," not paying attention to the good habits that have formed along side of them. The result is that we can find ourselves in a rut. We have moments where we leave the bad habit behind, but because we might have also gotten rid of a good habit, we return to that bad habit because it was so comfortable. Jesus, help us today to recognize the bad habits in our lives. Help us also to reach out for help in removing them from our lives, while preserving all that is good in our lives. May your love always shine forth!

Desde el escritorio del P. Ian. Robbins:

El trigo y las malas hierbas: A menudo, cuando nos encontramos luchando con un mal hábito en nuestras vidas, el pensamiento inmediato es: "Necesito pasar y eliminar a fondo ese hábito de mi vida", sin prestar atención a los buenos hábitos que se han formado a lo largo de ellos. El resultado es que podemos encontrarnos en una rutina. Tenemos momentos en los que dejamos atrás el mal hábito, pero como también podríamos habernos librado de un buen hábito, volvemos a ese mal hábito porque era muy cómodo. Jesús, ayúdanos hoy a reconocer los malos hábitos en nuestra vida. Ayúdanos también a buscar ayuda para sacarlos de nuestra vida, preservando al mismo tiempo todo lo que es bueno en nuestra vida. ¡Que tu amor siempre brille!
