From the desk of Fr. Ian Robbins:

The Man By the River: There was a man who lived in a big house down by the river, and one day, while he was listening to the radio, a report was broadcast saying that the river was going to come up and flood the area. He thought to himself, "I pray, I'm religious, God will save me." A few days later, the river came up and flooded his house. A man in a boat passed by and shouted to him, "Hey! The area is flooded, let me take you to safety!" The man shouted back, "I pray, I'm religious, God will save me." The river continued to rise, engulfing all of the house. A helicopter passed over and shouted down, "Hey you in there! The entire area is flooded. Let me get you out of there!" But the man shouted back once again, "'I pray, I'm religious, God will save me.'" The man drowned.

When he arrived at the gates of heaven, the man asked St. Peter; "I'm religious, I prayed, and God didn't save me!" St. Peter replied, "He tried to warn you! He sent a radio report, a man in a boat and a helicopter. What more did you want from him?"

Friends, from the most difficult situations, all the way to the simplest, God is trying to seek us out; to speak to us. Do we look only for the big moments when God wants to speak to us, or are we like the Canaanite woman who came to Jesus because she knew that he could redeem her daughter. May we have a faith like hers, seeking out ALL that we need from the Lord.

Desde el escritorio del P. Ian. Robbins:

El hombre junto al río: Había un hombre que vivía en una casa grande junto al río, y un día, mientras escuchaba la radio, se transmitía un informe diciendo que el río iba a subir e inundar la zona. Pensó para sí mismo: "Rezo, soy religioso, Dios me salvará". Unos días más tarde, el río se acercó e inundó su casa. Un hombre en un barco pasó y le gritó: "¡Oye! ¡La zona está inundada, déjame llevarte a un lugar seguro!" El hombre gritó: "Rezo, soy religioso, Dios me salvará". El río continuó subiendo, envolviendo toda la casa. Un helicóptero pasó y gritó: "¡Oye, ahí dentro! Toda el área está inundada. ¡Déjame sacarte de ahí!" Pero el hombre gritó una vez más: "'Rezo, soy religioso, Dios me salvará'". El hombre se ahogó.

Cuando llegó a las puertas del cielo, el hombre le preguntó a San Pedro; "Soy religioso, oré, y Dios no me salvó!" San Pedro respondió: "¡Trató de advertirte! Envió un reporte de radio, un hombre en un bote y un helicóptero. ¿Qué más querías de él?"

Amigos, desde las situaciones más difíciles, hasta lo más simple, Dios está tratando de buscarnos; para hablar con nosotros. ¿Buscamos sólo los grandes momentos en que Dios quiere hablar con nosotros, o somos como la mujer Cananea que vino a Jesús porque sabía que podía redimir a su hija. Que tengamos una fe como la de ella, buscando TODO lo que necesitamos del Señor.
