From the desk of Fr. Thumma Prathap:

Dear brothers and sisters, we might call this Sunday "Power Sunday" because the main theme of all three readings is that God is the Source of all authority. God shares His authority with elected civil rulers to serve the people and with the Pope and the other Church leaders for the material and spiritual welfare of His children.

The first reading, taken from Isaiah, tells us how God hates unfaithful and selfish officials. Today's Gospel passage shows us how Peter confesses Jesus as his Lord and Savior and how Jesus, in turn, approves Peter's words and gives him teaching and ruling authority in his Church. Thus, Jesus establishes a "Magisterium" in his Church to serve the spiritual and physical needs of the Church members. By Jesus' statement, "I will give you the Keys to the Kingdom of Heaven," he gives Peter and his successors the power to bind and to loose (make laws; exercise authority) in the Church, and the assurance that their decisions will be ratified in Heaven.

1) We need to accept and experience Jesus as our Lord and personal Savior: First, we should accept Jesus as the Son of God and our personal Savior. Next, Jesus should become a living experience for us – as our God protecting us and providing for us in our life's journey. Our personal experience of Jesus will also lead us to praise and thank God in all the events of our lives, both good, pleasant and painful, realizing that God's loving hands are behind everything. 2) We need to surrender our lives to Jesus, our Lord and Savior. That surrender requires that we freely give all areas of our lives to Jesus and radiate to all around us Jesus' sacrificial agápe love, unconditional forgiveness, overflowing mercy, and committed service. We also surrender our lives to Jesus by rendering humble, loving service to others with the strong conviction that Jesus is present in every person. Amen.

Desde el escritorio del P. Thumma Prathap:

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, podríamos llamar a este domingo "Domingo de Poder" porque el tema principal de las tres lecturas es que Dios es la Fuente de toda autoridad. Dios comparte Su autoridad con los gobernantes civiles electos para servir al pueblo y con el Papa y los demás líderes de la Iglesia para el bienestar material y espiritual de Sus hijos.

La primera lectura, tomada de Isaías, nos dice cómo Dios odia a los funcionarios infieles y egoístas. El pasaje del Evangelio de hoy nos muestra cómo Pedro confiesa a Jesús como su Señor y Salvador y cómo Jesús, a su vez, aprueba las palabras de Pedro y le da autoridad para enseñar y gobernar en su Iglesia. Así, Jesús establece un "Magisterio" en su Iglesia para atender las necesidades espirituales y físicas de los miembros de la Iglesia. Mediante la declaración de Jesús, "Te daré las llaves del reino de los cielos", le da a Pedro y a sus sucesores el poder de atar y soltar (hacer leyes, ejercer autoridad) en la Iglesia, y la seguridad de que sus decisiones serán ratificadas en el cielo.

1) Necesitamos aceptar y experimentar a Jesús como nuestro Señor y Salvador personal: Primero, debemos aceptar a Jesús como el Hijo de Dios y nuestro Salvador personal. Segundo, Jesús debe convertirse en una experiencia viva para nosotros, como nuestro Dios que nos protege y nos provee en el camino de nuestra vida. Nuestra experiencia personal de Jesús también nos llevará a alabar y agradecer a Dios en todos los eventos de nuestra vida, tanto los buenos y agradables como dolorosos, dándonos cuenta de que las manos amorosas de Dios están detrás de todo.

2) Necesitamos entregar nuestras vidas a Jesús, nuestro Señor y Salvador. Esa entrega requiere que entreguemos libremente todas las áreas de nuestra vida a Jesús e irradiemos a todos los que nos rodean el amor agápe sacrificial de Jesús, el perdón incondicional, la misericordia desbordante y el servicio comprometido. También entregamos nuestras vidas a Jesús al brindar un servicio amoroso y humilde a los demás as la fuerte convicción de que Jesús está presente en cada persona. Amén.

A Scriptural Study of Angels

Are you interested in what the Catholic Church, through Scripture and the Catechism really has to say about Angels?

Every Sunday we stand to profess our faith in the God who created "all things visible and invisible". We also confess our sins in the presence of "all the angels and saints". But there is so much more. There is something new to discover here for almost everyone.

Join us in a virtual (via Zoom) study of these messengers of God, and yes, their counterparts, the fallen angels. Classes will meet on Monday evenings and Tuesday mornings – your choice beginning September 14th/15th. For more information please contact Annette Winfield at (210) 885-0861.

Un estudio bíblico de los ángeles

¿Está interesado en lo que la Iglesia Católica, a través de las Escrituras y el Catecismo, realmente tiene que decir sobre los ángeles? Cada domingo profesamos nuestra fe en el Dios que es creador "todo lo visible e invisible". También confesamos nuestros pecados en presencia de "todos los ángeles y santos". Pero hay mucho más. Hay algo nuevo que descubrir aquí para casi todos.

Únase a nosotros en un estudio virtual (vía Zoom) de estos mensajeros de Dios, y sí, sus contrapartes, los ángeles caídos. Las clases se llevarán a cabo los lunes por la noche y los martes por la mañana, a su elección, a partir del 14 y 15 de septiembre. Para obtener más información, por favor comuníquese con Annette Winfield at (210) 885-0861.
